QUICK MOBILITY STARTS WITH GEARBOSS

People and equipment in any athletic program are constantly on the move. From the gym, on the bus to away games, to the field-house and the locker room. Your equipment storage can and should be mobile as well. GearBoss by Wenger allows you to get the equipment close to where you need it. Bring the volleyballs and basketballs, pinnies and cones right to the gym, without ever unloading the cart.

- Get all the equipment you need, close to where you need it
- Move your equipment to a temporary space
- Your time is valuable - don't waste it moving equipment over and over

Mobility in your equipment storage is key to being efficient and organized. Getting specific equipment closest to the venue it is used in creates fewer steps and touches. From locker room to game-site, gym floor to soccer field, GearBoss by Wenger makes storage as mobile as your program has to be.

"The mobility of the Team Carts also saves time. They easily roll wherever we need them, so we don't need to load equipment off and on a cart for transportation. Everything's there – we just take off what we need."
