PLAYRIGHT™ CHAIR

Absolutely habit forming.

Playright music chairs help young musicians develop good posture habits early. Their design forces students to sit properly so they can breathe properly and perform properly, which keeps you off posture patrol.

Playright chairs are built to keep on performing long after their competitors have given up. They're designed by educators specifically for school use. Constructed of durable, double-wall polyethylene seats and backs on the most durable steel frames on the market. Playright chairs take all the abuse a school environment can dish out.

PLAYRIGHT™ CHAIR

Wenger's Playright Chair design duplicates the benefits of standing posture in a seated position.

The problem with common chairs.

In a standing position, your rib cage is expanded for maximum breath intake. Your diaphragm is unconstricted for greater breath support. Your hips are rotated forward, allowing your back to follow its natural, supportive lumbar curve. The result is the ideal posture for singing or playing an instrument.

But sit in any nonposture chair and your body's immediate reaction is to slouch. When you sit back your spine is forced out of its natural supportive position. This forces your body down, lowering your rib cage and constricting your diaphragm. To compensate for this discomfort and lack of support, you move to the edge of the seat. You'll continue this cycle as long as you're seated, bringing on rapid fatigue and making it difficult to focus on technique.

The Wenger Solution: Posture Chairs

Sit in a Wenger Playright Chair, one of five exclusive Posture Chair models, and you immediately notice how the chair's contours help duplicate the body's natural standing position. Your hips are slightly forward, putting your spine in its strongest, most naturally comfortable position. Your rib cage is raised as though you were standing, giving your diaphragm unobstructed movement. Your body is held firm, but comfortable. It's difficult to slouch and easy to concentrate on mechanics and performance.
