

STAGEMOBILE®

Wenger®

A flexible, affordable mobile event solution.

The Stagemobile® from Wenger transports easily and sets up quickly for a variety of events, such as concerts, festivals, ceremonies, dances and rallies. Anytime and anywhere you need a stage, the Wenger Stagemobile is the perfect solution. It can be towed by a pickup truck and set up in minutes by only one person.

The Stagemobile's all-aluminum frame provides lightweight strength and durability, while offering a sleek, high-tech appearance. The Stagemobile is built to resist corrosion and the elements, ensuring years of trouble-free operation and good looks. Its compact folding design minimizes storage requirements and enhances mobility. Available in three stage sizes, the Stagemobile can also be enlarged by ganging multiple units together or adding Wenger Versalite® stage extensions.

The Wenger Stagemobile — A mobile, lightweight, durable, multipurpose stage that always draws a crowd.

Easy, one-person setup in just minutes. Folding design uses gas-assist springs to provide smooth and safe operation. Built-in leveling jacks offer fast leveling on any surface.

Retractable tongue provides access around entire stage perimeter. To enlarge stage, simply add Wenger Versalite stage extensions or gang multiple Stagemobiles together.

Space beneath stage deck for hauling equipment and cargo, with optional closure panels for increased security and weather-resistance.

Stage folds down and has adjustable legs attached for solid deck support.

Ideal for ceremonies, rallies, concerts, festivals - anywhere you need an outdoor stage. Optional stairways, guardrails and skirting available for easy access, added safety and an enhanced appearance.

Compact design can be towed by a vehicle with suitable towing capacity. All-aluminum frame stores outdoors in any weather.
