

ATTIC STORAGE SYSTEM

Wenger®

Store up to maximize the space in your facility.

There never seems to be enough space for storage. Wenger Corporation offers a means to maximize your space and, at the same time, protect your investments with the Attic Storage System. Attics are available in an assortment of sizes that fit perfectly on the top of any cabinet. The Wenger Corporation Attic Storage System is an ideal solution for a variety of your music storage needs such as safeguarding seasonal items like marching band equipment. Each attic cover is made of a rugged, durable polyester supported by a frame that's both sturdy and lightweight. The attic floor consists of a $\frac{3}{4}$ " (19 mm) thick industrial grade composite wood with an oyster polyester laminate finish. Durable, flexible and functional, the Wenger Corporation Attic Storage System is a smart way to store.

ATTIC STORAGE SYSTEM

A high-quality zipper has pulls that are large enough for a small luggage type lock.

Attics do not negatively impact acoustics within a practice space due to the materials used in its design. To ensure a good fit, consider the location of any obstacles above your existing instrument storage cabinets prior to ordering.

PRODUCT SPECIFICATIONS:

- Front and back frames have $\frac{3}{4}$ " (19 mm) square tube vertical members and $\frac{3}{4}$ " x $1\frac{1}{2}$ " (19 x 38 mm) rectangular tube horizontal members finished with a black powder-coat paint. Side frames are $\frac{3}{4}$ " (19 mm) square tube with black powder-coat paint.
- Cover is lightweight, rugged and durable 900 denier polyester, polyurethane backed (non fire-rated) with an 8 mm zipper with pulls large enough for a small luggage type lock (available separately).
- Attic floor is $\frac{3}{4}$ " (19 mm) thick industrial grade composite wood with oyster polyester laminate finish.
- Floor must span entire cabinet(s) and each side of frame must be directly on top of a cabinet side panel.
- Consideration must be made of obstacles above the instrument storage cabinets prior to purchase, including pipes, conduit, etc.
