SELECTED RESOURCES FOR TECHNOLOGY FUNDING

Wenger®
Your Performance Partner

HELPFUL ARTICLES:

■ "7 Ways to Get Funding and Grants for Technology in Your Classroom"
Link: http://positivelearning.com/blog/2016/2/11/7-ways-to-get-funding-and-grants-for-technology-in-your-classroom
Description: Covers obtaining technology grants in general, not necessarily just music, but includes helpful suggestions.

■ "Getting the Grant 101"
Link: https://www.tgci.com/articles/getting-grant-101
Description: General overview of elements in a successful grant proposal, including: compelling description of the situation; clear statement of results; detailed plan of action; plan to evaluate; and realistic budget.

■ "Finding the Right Funders"
Link: https://www.tgci.com/articles/finding-right-funders
Description: Describes research tools for government grants, from federal to municipal levels.

WEBSITES:

■ http://www.musicalonline.com/foundation_grants.htm#g
Includes links to other sites of grant-making organizations, with brief descriptions.

■ http://www.childrensmusicworkshop.com/resources/grants/
Includes links to possible grant sources (by region, private, federal, etc.)

■ www.cfda.gov
Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA). Describes itself as "the best place to begin your search for federal grant funding programs." CFDA is a free online database of all federal domestic assistance programs.

■ www.grants.gov
Grants.gov. "If your organization plans to apply for federal funding, it should register with Grants.gov. You can use this resource to search for grant programs, and it is also the portal through which many grant applications must be submitted. To register with Grants.gov, you will also have to register with the Central Contractor Registry (CCR). Instructions on registering with CRR can be found on the Grants.gov website."

■ http://www.soundtree.com/findingfunds
Includes compilation of links to grant-making organizations and other resources. Book offered provides informative, step-by-step guidelines; book costs $10.00.

■ http://srainternational.org
GrantsWeb source for links to various websites relating to grants and funding.